PROFILE Méditerranée

Specializing in European art and antiques, as well as Spanish Colonial pieces, Méditerranée presents an evolving inventory that includes a selection of fine 17th, 18th and 19th century French, Spanish and Italian trunks, cabinets, credenzas, tables, chairs and other interior furnishings. Owner Carolina Pierpont also offers a line of customizable reproduction furniture based on 17th and 18th century Italian, Spanish and Portuguese designs that she designs and manufactures in collaboration with François Paris. Interior accessories include silver mirrors and frames from Peru, santos (saints) from Brazil, religious artifacts and other collectables that fit into Santa Barbara's Spanish influenced style. Pierpont, assisted by her daughters Nicole and Ana, has amassed a collection of distinctive fine art with an emphasis on Latin American art from the 19th century to the present. The collection includes the work of Mexican artist Roberto Montenegro (a contemporary of Orozco, Diego Rivera and Siqueiros), Angel Bracho and Afro-Cuban artist Raul Enmanuel who resides in Havana, Cuba and is influenced by Wilfredo Lam. California artists include Millard Sheets, Douglas Parrshall and contemporary photographer Kristoffer Lassen. Méditerranée also showcases handmade and antique tiles from Italy and Spain, classic European hardware for furniture and home, glazing, frescoes and murals by François Paris. In the garden, gazebos, fountains, sub-tropical plants and antique architectural elements stand out against the backdrop of Méditerranée's exclusive line of limestone fountains imported directly from France.
